WE PUT THE SCIENCE
BEHIND YOUR FOOD &
SUPPLEMENT PRODUCTS

WHEN A PROFESSIONAL NEEDS AN EXPERT IN FOOD & NUTRITION...

Find your competitive advantage with the food and nutrition scientists at knowledge bank. Draw from our technical professionals to bolster your food and nutrition business activities to:

- ☑ comply with food label regulations
- ☑ substantiate product claims
- ☑ benchmark nutritional profiles of competitor products or restaurant menus
- ☑ research literature for structure/function claims
- ☑ conduct in-house labeling or nutrition sessions
- ☑ support clinical research of your custom formulas
- ☑ submit labels to USDA for pre-approval

WE SPEAK NUTRITION...

The media covering food, nutrition and health are filled with buzz-words including organics, nutraceuticals, antioxidants, omega-3's—even phytochemicals. These words can blur the mind with their overwhelming messages and themes. knowledge bank professionals are the technical reinforcement for your information dilemmas. We can translate the words and interpret the proper meaning for your particular business application.

TECHNICAL SUPPORT FOR THE NON-SCIENTIST...

Avalanches of nutrition information and health findings can put significant obstacles into product development and marketing timelines. Draw upon knowledge bank experts to tailor a proprietary solution for your business dilemma. Allow our scientists to help disclose existing publications or build a record of original research with our clinical services. Prepare ahead of time for FDA and FTC reviews of your supplement marketing and promotional copy with science-based reports.

Our experts have labeling, formulation and research experience so you'll spend less time explaining your needs and more time using our solutions to fuel your project decision-making. We complement a client's knowledge base with international experience.
